

of fortune, and make the attempt. I communicated my plan to Col. Stanton, then commanding officer at this post and requesting his permission to put it into execution. He very readily gave the liberty to go and attack the enemy when and where I pleased.
I then selected several officers, in whose abilities and secrecy, from a personal acquaintance, I could confide. I then asked them if they were willing to go on an enterprise; but where, and in what particular enterprise, I could not then inform them.
They all consented to go. The names of the officers are as follows: Ebenezer Adams, Captain of Artillery; Samuel Phillips, Captain; James Potter, Lieutenant; Josiah Babcock, Lieutenant; Andrew Stanton, Ensign, and John Willcocks. The next step to be taken was to procure boats, which was attended with some difficulty, as there was but two at our post; however, in two or three days we obtained five whale boats, and had them fitted in the best possible manner.

Having obtained the men, and all things in readiness, we embarked on the 4th of July, with an intention to proceed to Bristol. After we got into Mount Hope Bay, there came on a heavy storm of thunder and rain, by which most of the boats were one; the two boats which were not separated, pushed on with all speed, and landed at Bristol at 10 o'clock at night, being the 6th. I went to the commanding officer's quarters, where there was a deserter, who had just made his escape from Rhode Island.
Taking him into a private room, I questioned him concerning the enemy's position, whether there had been any alteration in the British encampment within a few days; he said there had not. I then asked him where the commander in chief quartered; he very much surprised me when he answered in the town of Newport. I asked him if he ever went with such a guard as a sergeant and ten men to the western part of the island; he told me he had not, I again asked him if he knew of such a guard being detached from the grand parade every morning at 8 o'clock; he said he did. I was now very well convinced that part of what he said arose from his ignorance of the quarters. At 8 o'clock the other boats joined us.
I then took the officers with me on a small island, (called Hog Island) in plain sight of the British encampment and shipping where after we had viewed them something with a glass, I thus addressed them: Gentlemen, the enterprise which I have projected, and which I want your assistance to execute, is this—to go on the island of Rhode Island, surprise Major General Prescott at his own quarters, and bring him prisoner to the main.
The officers who knew nothing of the intention, seemed somewhat surprised.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1857.

R. TOURJEE, Esq., is hereby authorized to transact for us any business connected with the News and Journal office, of this city.

American Republican Meeting.

THERE will be a meeting of all opposed to the present administration, at the State House, this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing committees to recommend suitable candidates for city officers, for the ensuing year. Oliver Reed, Chairman. as C. C. Van Zandt, Pres't.

In some very proper remarks yesterday about appointments of ministers abroad—the Providence Journal make the following statement.

There is in Newport a man well fitted by learning and ability, by experience and by aptitude for public affairs, and fortune and position, for a foreign appointment of the first class; but if such a place should, by any possibility, be conceded this State, and his friends should apply for it in his behalf, there are probably a dozen men in his own party at home, who can speak no language but bad English, and have no idea of states manship but demagoguism, who would be preferred to him.

Here seems to be another trustworthy ticket. If we rightly guess the one referred to by the Journal we fully endorse the statement. But how much purer than now must be the political atmosphere before the executive will get upon his scent. What a satire and what a condemnation also of political management is the simple fact that at the great periodical clearing of offices, the really upright and able men of a party are rarely heard of.

We ask the attention of our readers to the call for a meeting of "all persons opposed to the present Administration," at the State House this evening.

The "American Republican Party," having commented its union in the late State and Congressional election, is now in condition to control the affairs of the State, and City, and we trust they will select such candidates as will meet the hearty approval of the people.

We hear a deal of grumbling about the importance of having honest and efficient officers, from men who take no trouble to change matters. If they are interested, as every good citizen ought to be, they must attend the primary meetings and secure good committees; or else must be content to be responsible if inefficient officials are selected.

COURT OF JUSTICES, April 3d.—State vs.
Edward Nason for fast driving. Fined $2 and cost. Paid.

April 7th.—State vs Sarah Davis for violation of the liquor law, guilty. Fined $20 and cost, and ten days in county Jail.
Appealed.

State vs. John F. Young for the same offence. Continued until Friday next.

The Wyckoff Gold Mines, in Fauquier county, Va., have been sold for $4500, to satisfy an execution. The whole amount spent upon these works, could not have been less than $50,000.

David Wilnot is going to stump Pennsylvania for the Governorship.

Correspondence of the News.

Boston, April 6th, 1857.

Mr. Editor:—Before saying for the great city of New York, I must give you a word more of provincial Boston. I don't wonder this town is not liked by many strangers. I have never before made so long a stop here as at present, but I find the longer stays the better one likes it. I have been stopping at the Parker House, and if there is a more comfortable hotel in the United States for a bachelor than this, it has never opened its doors to me. Boston is a strange place to a stranger, but when you get into it you feel quite at home. To-day is Monday morning, and it is raining like guns else you would not have had this letter. But it rains so hard I am sure it must rain out soon, so I will wait an hour before going about business.

I happened to be in the Supreme Court Saturday night, and heard Cater make his defence for the murder of warden Temple.
I meant to have been in time to hear Attorney Clifford's plea, which is said to have been a masterly effort reminding one of Webster, but business engagements prevented.

Cater had just commenced speaking when I went in. The fellow seemed really to believe what he was saying, that attempts had been made to poison him by the officers of the prison, and that because he could not get released he murdered the warden. His statements were perfectly cool, and he attempted to substantiate them by reference to a large bundle of notes of the evidence which he had taken himself, and which he held in his hand while speaking. There was not, however, a particle of proof of the fact which he assumed, and after speaking some forty minutes he sat down, without any apparent satisfaction in what he had done. I left the Court-room while the Judge was delivering his charge; but yesterday morning I heard the expected verdict of guilty was rendered a little before 11 o'clock, on Saturday night.

Yesterday I went into Tremont Temple, the place where Rev. Mr. Kallach used to preach. It was rumored he would preach himself in the morning, and a great crowd assembled. He was in the pulpit with a stranger; but when I found the latter was about to dispense the word, I slipped out and went round to the Music Hall, determined not to lose the day by hearing nothing remarkable. You know the Music Hall is the Rev. T. Parker's Church. I had never heard this celebrity, excepting in a lecture once in Newport, when I thought him a pretty hard case. When I entered the Music Hall, which was almost as much crowded as the Tremont Temple, I should think there were three thousand present.

Mr. Parker was just rising to announce his text. I am no critic of the pulpit. It is a great realm of thought and power, into which I have no capacity or disposition to enter as a judge. Capt. Rynders and barroom democracy know what and how a minister ought to preach. I don't, excepting, as you know Mr. Editor, I admire honesty and true religious feeling. Well, about Parker yesterday. Although he said great many things which I have been taught to think not exactly so, yet I was pleased with the tenor of the sermon. His congregation listened with perfect attention and his words went home to more than a thousand hearts.

I understand he has been quite sick for several weeks past of a fever, and yesterday was his first appearance for more than a month. This accounts for many touching illusions in his discourse, which drew tears from many eyes. I suppose Parker is a great heretic; but as I went from the Music Hall, after his discourse of more than an hour's length, I could not help wondering how "damnable heresy" could yield such fruits of Christian affection.

There, the rain has ceased, and I ton-must stop—Boston Common will be made green by this shower, and the busy city will be washed. This P. M. I shall start for New York, by the express train overland.
It is ten years since I have been there lately.

Two laughable occurrences, affording few demonstrations of the migratory propensities of our countrymen, have come to our notice. A gentleman recently found amid the ruins of Palmyra, surrounded by the decaying relics of Oriental grandeur, a New England farmer from Berkshire county, "keeping house" with his family.
Again, a friend from Boston was travelling some years ago in Greece, and stopped in Athens. To while away an evening he visited the theatre. While musing upon the topics which every scene around him suggested to his mind, and deeply buried in classic associations, he heard a voice behind him remark, "Pooh! this ain't nothing. You ought to see the Tremont Theatre, Boston." Turning round in utter amazement, he exclaimed to a gaunt Yankee on the next bench—"Where on earth did you come from?" Without moving a muscle of his face, the person rejoined—"Got a little vessel down here in the Pei-mus. Just come from Thomaston, Maine!"
The effect can be imagined.—Boston Courier.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST AMERICAN CAPTAINS.—Sir A. Haughton, Governor of the Bahamas, in his recent message to the legislature, made some serious charges against American shipmasters trading to the islands. He asserts that some of them —there are honorable exceptions—are so utterly unworthy the confidence placed in them that they secretly agree with the reefers for a salvage, and then run the vessel and cargo to wreck. The Governor recommends some effectual check for this crime, which is very horrible, if practiced.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

HARTFORD, April 6.
Hartford elects two Republican Representatives, and gives on the State ticket 50 majority on the Democrats. Ezra Clark, Jr., First District, is re-elected to Congress.
The Democrats have elected their Senator in the First District. Second District, Republican, and Third District, Democrat.
The House and Senate are said to be Republican. Not enough heard from the State ticket to form any opinion as to the result.

WASHINGTON, April 6.
Our affairs with China continue to occupy the attention of the administration, since it has been known in Washington that the British government has appointed Lord Elgin as Minister Plenipotentiary to China.— Our government has determined to send one thither at an early day, but owing to the great distance of China, and the time that will necessarily be involved in receiving and transmitting official communications, the administration is solicitous in selecting a Minister in whom the utmost confidence can be placed, and who will be governed by a wise discretion, considering the general questions involved, including our increasing commerce in that part of the world.

The President has re-appointed John Fraser as postmaster at New Bedford.

WATERTOWN, April 6.
The dwelling house of Mr. Grimshaw, near Cape Vincent, was destroyed by fire early on Saturday morning, and Grimshaw, wife and six children perished in the flames.

PENDELTON, April 6.
The saw-mill and lumber-yard of James Mack, at this place, were burnt yesterday.
Loss about $10,000.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6.
The steamship Black Warrior, with Havana dates to the 3d inst., has arrived here.— The Mexican question continues to be the general topic of conversation among the people of Cuba, but nothing further official was known regarding the movements of Spain. Despatches were daily expected.— The stock of sugar at Havana and Matanzas was 210,000 boxes, and the market remained firm at last quotations. Two Dutch ships with 700 casks on board had arrived at Havana. There had been copious rains throughout the island. Our papers from Texas are to the 2d inst. The crops were in tolerable condition, but were suffering from want of rain.

DETROIT, April 6.
This city gives 200 Democratic majority for Judges of the Supreme Court, with two wards to hear from. The returns from the interior of the State are scattering, and indicate that but a small vote was polled.
The weather has been cold and boisterous, accompanied with snow.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6.
In the election for Judge of the Supreme Court, 15 counties had been heard from, and Robertson, Democrat, was 200 ahead. The election in this city to-day, for Judge, passed off quietly, but the returns are not yet received.

Mr. Fowler, British Vice-Consul at New York, has presented £50 to the widow of John Jones, one of the American boatmen who perished in rescuing the crew of the British bark Tasso, which was wrecked at Barnegat, last winter. A subscription has also resulted in the collection of a sum sufficient to purchase a house and farm for Mrs. Jones. Mr. Fowler is also making inquiries respecting other boatmen, who lost their lives at the time.

Eleven women who destroyed the bottles, casks and liquor of a retailer in Belleville, Ohio, whose shop was frequented by their fathers, brothers and husbands, have been tried for riot in the common pleas of Richland county, and acquitted by the jury, to the apparent satisfaction of everybody except the plaintiff.

In the Supreme Court at New York, on Thursday, the place of trial of Mrs. Cunningham and Mr. Eckel, was changed from the Court of General Sessions to the Court of Oyer and Terminer. The trial will take place on the 2d Monday in April, as before provided.

Ship Helena, Thompson, sailed from

A CARD TO THE LADIES.
DR. DUBOIS'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause.
All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Lethargy of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZ-ARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply an trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies,

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

BROOKLYN, Conn., June 16, 1854.
FRIEND DAVIS:—Although a stranger to you, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you, for the purpose of saying a few words in favor of your invaluable medicine. I have used your Pain Killer for a number of years, and for bowel complaint and burns, and have found it of all kinds, I think the most efficient.— Before I became acquainted with your medicine, I had a violent attack of dysentery, which reduced me very low, in fact my friends thought I could not survive, but by the treatment of a Botanic Physician, the best remedy I then knew, I recovered. Since then, I have had several attacks, one very violent, about four years ago. I was attacked at 3 o'clock in the morning, and at sunrise, I was not able to get off my bed. I sent and got a twenty-five cent bottle of your Pain Killer, which I commenced taking, according to directions, and at six o'clock in the evening my bowels were regular, and I was up and moving about, although somewhat weak. I would recommend to all similarly afflicted, to avail themselves of your invaluable medicine.

I am, sir, yours respectfully, ELMER D. WILLIAMS.
The genuine Pain Killer, with the words Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer blown in the glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle—one an excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original inventor of the medicine, the other a steel engraved note of hand —none others can be relied upon as genuine.
Prices of bottles 12 1/2 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 respectively.

DEAR SIR:—The Defiance Sale, No. 5,778, for many hours, was recovered on the 10th of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the same has stood just as when recovered, until shipped to your store this morning.

I was agreeably surprised, as were also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the Safes of your manufacture. Yours, Respectfully,
